PERSONAL PROJECTS

An LMS Website

(MathematicsMadeEasy.com)

- Built a website on WordPress for students where they can purchase courses and start learning by watching video lectures.

Other than this I like making creative things for fun that can be seen on my website. 🔗

ACHIEVEMENTS

Not just a UI developer

I started working as a UI Developer but when needed I handled a bit of front-end as well and then I started using real time data and developed some of the front-end as well with back-end (Java) system integration using Axios.
